Northwest Chinese School Offers Reduced/Waived Tuition for Chinese Language Classes for Students from Low Income Families

Northwest Chinese School (NWCS) proudly announces Financial Aid program for low-income families (Metro- Seattle Standards). All NWCS students, current or new, from families with Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) lower than Washington State standards (details are listed on the Application Form: NWCS FA Form-1088), can expect to pay reduced tuition (up to 50%) or to enjoy 100% tuition waiver (tuition free) for one 2-hour Chinese Class only. In other words, this policy is not applicable to any selective classes at NWCS.

The following chart is the standards of total income before tax per household for qualified applicants. This chart is borrowed from Washington Housing Authority of current standards.

2 persons	3	4	5	6 persons
$30,825	$34,695	$38,520	$41,625	$44,685 (Bel-Red-Kirk-Issaquah)
$27,400	$30,840	$34,240	$37,000	$39,720 (Sea-Tac-Lyn-shoreline)

Financial Aid Application guidelines are as follows:

The applicant needs to pay the tuition in full and then get the refund back after the Financial Aid has approved

- Application deadline: 2nd week for each Semester
- Application form (NWCS FA Form 1088) can be downloaded at school
